

EXIBIÇÃO DE FILMES (GRATUITA) SOBRE O TIMOR LESTE

POR OCASIÃO DO OITAVO ANIVERSÁRIO DO RECONHECIMENTO DO
TIMOR LESTE COMO NAÇÃO, PELA ONU (MAIO DE 2002)

DATA: DIA 29 DE JUNHO

LOCAL: HITCHCOCK CINEMA (Arts Building, Queen Mary, University of London (Mile End Road, E14 NS)
Mile End Station

18:30 Timor Lorosae - O Massacre Que o Mundo Não Viu (Brasil, Lucélia Santos, 2001, em português)

20:00 Balibo (Australia, Robert DConnly, 2009, em inglês)

Sobre Timor Lorosae

“Brazilian actress, Lucélia Santos, has done an excellent job in creating a documentary about a country which is virtually in shambles. After her long stay in East Timor, in appalling conditions, and using interviews from experts, and archival footage, Ms. Santos has given us the definitive documentary of the plight, and hope for this long suffering people”

“It is about a twenty five year long massacre/genocide of the East Timorese people. East Timor was annexed by Indonesia after independence from Portugal in 1974, followed by a planned genocide of the people, not limited to mass killings and provoked- civil war, but included the sterilization of East Timorese women by the Indonesians to reduce the population of East Timor’s native ethnic group. A third of the population, it is believed, was killed.” (Source: IMDB)

Sobre Balibo

“War correspondent Roger East and the young Jose Ramos-Horta travel to East Timor to investigate the murders of the Balibo Five in 1975.” (Source: IMDB)

Maiores informações: Else R. P. Vieira (e@vieira.org.uk)