

GT de Sexualidade e Gênero na Migração Brasileira
Working Party on Gender and Sexuality in Brazilian Migration
Queen Mary, University of London, and BRASIS Association

Colloquium Mapping Out Gender and Sexuality Priorities in Brazilian Migration

I COLLOQUIUM : THE BRAZILIAN MIGRANT WOMAN

Sponsored by the Portuguese Section, Queen Mary, University of London
In Partnership with the Association BRASIS (Brazilian Advisory Services, Former BASE)

Organizer : Else R. P. Vieira

Collaborator: Alvaro Piton

February 19th 2010 (Morning)

Venue: Queen Mary, University of London (Room 602, Physics or G O Jones Building)

9:30:00–10:00 Framing the Discussion

Brazilian Immigration: A Historical Reversal Within the Context of Sexual Diversity and the Feminization of Global Migration

Else R. P. Vieira (Professor of Brazilian Studies, Queen Mary, University of London; BRASIS)

10:00–11:30 Displacement as Emancipation Versus Gender Subordination of the Brazilian Migrant Woman

Brazilian Women Introducing New Patterns into British Life: Achievements and Difficulties

Iris Martins Griffiths (Across Consultancy)

Sexual Tourism in Brazil and Domestic Violence Towards Brazilian Wives in European Host Countries

Edmar da Rocha (Sociologist; Ongoing PhD in Comparative Brazilian Migration to Italy and the UK, Milan University)

The Woman's Entrapment in Overwork and in the Brazilian Family's Growing Dependency

Zenilde O'Donnell (Psychologist)

CHAIRING: Luis Ventura (Community Development Manager, Lady Margareth Hall Settlement, BRASIS)

11:30–11:45 Coffee Break

11:45–13:00 Women Seeking Support from the Church

Isolation and Broken Unions in a Changing Context

João Neto (Voluntary Work for the Brazilian Catholic Chaplaincy, Willesden)

Most Frequent and Relevant Cases

One representative from the Pastoral Alliance

Daily Frequency Versus Gaps in Available Statistics

Daniel Clark (The Baptist Church, GEB)

CHAIRING: Álvaro Piton (Executive Director of BRASIS)