

GT de Gênero e Sexualidade na Migração Brasileira
Working Party on Gender and Sexuality in Brazilian Migration

Setor de Português do Queen Mary University of London
Portuguese Section of Queen Mary, University of London

III COLÓQUIO: IMIGRAÇÃO BRASILEIRA E IGUALDADE DE GÊNERO

III COLLOQUIUM: BRAZILIAN IMMIGRATION AND GENDER EQUALITY

Org. Else R. P. Vieira, with support from Brazilian Art, Culture and Gender Expressions (BACAGE)
Org. Else R. P. Vieira com o apoio da Brazilian Art, Culture and Gender Expressions (BACAGE)

July 06, 2010

PROGRAMA/PROGRAMME

- 13:30 The Mayor of London's Draft Gender Equality Scheme: Key Issues and Actions
Sue Johnson (Greater London Authority)
- 14:30 LGBT Migrants in London (Portuguese speakers): Experiences of the Naz Project London (NPL)
Client Support Services Manager
Naz Project London - Mobilising BME Communities for Sexual Health
- 15:00 Preview of *Trajectories: Brazilian GLBT Immigration to Europe (UK, 2010)
Directed by Gabriel Albuquerque and Else R. P. Vieira
Camera work by Farah Targino and Gabriel Albuquerque (Film Studies, Queen Mary University of London)
Featuring statements by: Leila Pereira Daianis (President of the Libellula Organization for Transsexuals and Transgenders, Italy), Luiza Ebling (created jurisprudence in Brazil on sex reassignment surgery) and Jane Sacco (Gay activist, cultural producer, Juiz de Fora-London) and Jane Sacco (
- 15:45 Homoeroticism and migration in poetry
Natan Barreto (Brazilian migrant poet; actor, translator) reading from his own poetry composed in London
- 16:00 Film *Princesa (UK/Italy, 2001 – about Brazilian transgenders in Italy)
Directed by Henrique Goldman (from São Paulo, resident in London, also director of Jean Charles, launched in Brazil in 2009).
- 17:30 Q&A with Henrique Goldman