

Portuguese Section

RESEARCH ON GENDER AND SEXUALITY IN BRAZILIAN IMMIGRATION: ETHICAL AND METHODOLOGICAL ISSUES

VI Colloquium of the Working Party on Gender & Sexuality in Brazilian Migration
VI Colóquio do GT de Gênero e Sexualidade na Migração Brasileira

Organized by: Else R. P. Vieira with the support of Amaranta Thompson and Sônia Schwendler

Date: October 16th

Time: 13:00 to 16:00

Venue: Alfred Hitchcock Cinema, Arts Building (no. 29 on map below)

Queen Mary University of London

327 Mile End Road (Mile End Tube Station)

London E14 NS <http://www.qmul.ac.uk/docs/about/26065.pdf>

PROGRAMME

The Hurdles of Work with Undocumented Immigrants

Dr. Cathy McIlwaine (Human Geography, Queen Mary University of London)

Research on Immigration and Human Traffic

Dr. Francesco Carchedi (Associazione PARSEC, Facultad Sociologia La Sapienza UniRoma)

Ethical and epistemological issues in violent research contexts

Professor Roberto Malighetti

Research project on human traffick: approaching the field

Runa Lazzarino (Universita' degli studi Milano Bicocca (ongoing PhD in Socio-Cultural Anthropology)

Ethical Protocols in Research on Gender Issues

Sonia Schwendler (Universidade Federal do Paraná; ongoing PhD in Hispanic Studies at Queen Mary)

'Regarding the pain of others': dilemmas in the dissemination of research material on gender and sexuality in immigration

Professor Else R. P. Vieira (School of Languages, Linguistics and Film, Queen Mary Univ. of London)

Sexuality and ethics: insights from Theology

Joabe Cavalcanti (Anglican Priest)

OBSERVER AND DISCUSSANT: Dr Taís Cerqueira Silva

General Coordinator of the National Support Network. Subsecretary of Combat of Violence towards Women of the Secretary for Women's Policies, Presidency of Brazil)

Registration: s.f.schwendler@qmul.ac.uk

Further information: Else R. P. Vieira

tel: 02078828335 (direct)